Our Beliefs

We believe ...
The future depends on our youth mastering learning and life skills.
Each person is capable of learning.
People learn in different ways.
A belief in oneself is vital to success.
Respect and caring for each individual is essential.
Learning can be joyful, interesting and meaningful.
Learning is effective when there is safety and trust among students and teachers.
Rapport between teachers, students and parents nurtures the educational process.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Being a lifelong learner means taking every opportunity to sharpen our academic skills and acquire knowledge. Learning becomes more engaging and inspiring as you apply effective study strategies, and reading, writing, and time-management skills gained at SuperCamp.

CONFIDENCE

Participants build self-confidence in several ways at SuperCamp. Competence and confidence increase as a result of the new learning and life skills acquired and the positive support from team members and staff throughout camp. At SuperCamp, celebrate every moment of growth and success and learn to believe in our limitless potential.

LEADERSHIP

Recognizing personal strengths and values, experiencing successful outcomes, and maintaining a positive attitude are all vital leadership qualities that are part of the growth experienced in the dynamic and supportive environment of SuperCamp. Whether it's guiding themselves toward academic success or coaching a debate team to a win, participants learn what it takes to be an effective leader.

"I feel like my best self in this environment and it only makes me want to come back and better myself even more.”

- Alex, SuperCamp Grad
INDEPENDENCE

In learning the 8 Keys of Excellence at SuperCamp, participants understand what it takes to be a more responsible and independent person, who can live their best life with integrity. We're committed to making our dreams happen by learning from our mistakes and we make the most of every moment.

INTRINSIC MOTIVATION

Collaboration and teamwork, commitment and goal-setting, and building self-esteem and confidence, all encourage our intrinsic motivation—and all are an integral part of the SuperCamp experience. Build your core motivation at SuperCamp.

AUTHENTIC RELATIONSHIPS

We can all be our true selves in the SuperCamp environment, and as a result we build meaningful friendships that last a lifetime. Reconnect with old friends and meet new like-minded participants.

"Each individual has their own strengths and weaknesses and what they must do is find their own strengths. It's a message that gets implanted by SuperCamp, that they too can be successful."

- Mary, Champion Parent
RIGOROUS SELECTION AND SCREENING PROCESS

Hundreds of applicants go through our rigorous selection and screening process to ensure that every child is surrounded by positive, encouraging role models.

EXTENSIVE TRAINING

Staff tell us our training program is like no other and the best they've experienced. Our facilitators participate in more than 100 hours of extensive training that includes meticulous "stand and delivery" coaching sessions and thorough training in our proprietary Quantum Learning methodology.

POSITIVE & SAFE ENVIRONMENT

We provide a space and culture where participants feel safe and supported, empowering them to optimize their learning and experience.

Junior Forum or Senior Forum?

Each of the SuperCamp programs builds on the content of the previous program and includes valuable new skills designed specifically for the relevant age group and learning level. They create a cycle of learning and growth, and returning participants add to their knowledge, deepen their understanding of SuperCamp’s learning and life skills, and strengthen their foundation of excellence.

Junior Forum, ages 11-13, entering grades 6-8

Early adolescence is a pivotal time when students are beginning to develop higher order thinking skills, establish and maintain healthy social interactions, define their values, and cultivate a mature sense of self. While at SuperCamp, participants set and reinforce behaviors and attitudes that will prepare them for success as lifelong learners.

Senior Forum, ages 14-18, entering grades 9-12

In defining their sense of self, students in this age group are strongly influenced by their reactions to family, friends, social media, and societal norms. Positive communication, effective listening, self-reflection, habit formation, self-expression, and building healthy relationships can be factors in creating a positive sense of self both as a person and a lifelong learner. College and career readiness coupled with preparation for life after high school is the focus of this program.
